Leland Estate of $55,000 Goes to Daughter.

The estate of the late Jefferson D.
Leland of Corunna, is valued at $55,000, according to the petition for the probate of his will, filed in probate court Wednesday. Of this amount $50,000 is in realty and $5,000 in personal property.

At the same time the will of Mr.
Leland's wife who died about six years ago, was filed for probate. Each left virtually all to the other. The effect, with both of them now deceased, will be the same as though there was no will, and Mrs. William Nothnagle, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Leland, will inherit the entire estate.

NEW YEAR WELCOMED
BY OWOSSO SOCIETY.

Delightful in every particular was the dinner dance closing the year 1920 and opening the year 1921 given at the armory Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George C. Reineke, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Reineke, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Smith and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Young. About two hundred guests were present.

A three course dinner was served by ten couples of young people and dancing was enjoyed between the courses. After the dinner had been served the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Just before midnight, the stage was brilliantly lighted, and the curtain was drawn aside, revealing a large "1921." Little Miss Elizabeth Blair tripped out and, throwing kisses to the guests, wished them a happy New Year. A favor dance followed, in which tin horns and other noise makers were distributed, and the New Year was appropriately heralded by the merry makers of the dancers.

Church of Christ Has Fine Year.

The members of the Church of Christ held their annual business meeting New Year's afternoon. The reports from the various departments of the church show splendid progress. During the year nearly seven thousand dollars was raised for all purposes. The total receipts for missions and benevolence amounted to fourteen hundred and ten dollars. The clerk's book show better than five hundred members, and in like manner has the Bible School kept pace.
During the present pastorate 144 persons have been added to the church membership, the church improvement debt paid in full, additional improvements made and paid for. The parsonage purchased, and all parsonage improvements paid for. The receipts for current expenses doubled, and missionary receipts increased nearly four times.
The ladies' missionary society has more than doubled. The membership is united and optimistic, and the outlook for the future is very bright. Mr.
Draper enters upon his fifth year as minister of the local church in February.
